LONDRES, 15 janvier.

Le silence qui a succédé à l'incident de la veille est rompu aujourd'hui par un discours de S. A. le Khedive, qui, contre toute attente, a pu s'adresser à la députation présente à l'Abassieh.

Le Khedive a spécifié que le but de son discours était d'expliquer au public la situation politique actuelle de l'Egypte. Il a précisé que, malgré les problèmes économiques et politiques actuels, l'Egypte est en passe de sortir de sa crise grâce à la bonne volonté des délégués de la Conférence de Londres.

Il a également souligné l'importance de la coopération entre l'Egypte et les autres nations du monde arabe pour surmonter les défis qui s'annoncent.

Le discours de S. A. le Khedive a été accueilli avec enthousiasme par les délégués de la Conférence de Londres, qui ont salué l'engagement du Khedive en faveur de la paix et de la stabilité dans le monde arabe.
